LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Notes by the Way.

It is stated that the Peking officials paid the French Tls. 400,000 to spare the city.

The Rev. Gilbert Reid acted as interpreter to the 16th Bengal Lancers in the North.

The new Japanese Minister to China, Mr. Komura, is a graduate of an American college.

The Bengal Lancers are stationed at Kowloon, where they are to pass the winter in barracks.

Lady Blake has telegraphed to Shanghai that she will have pleasure in presiding at the forthcoming Women's Conference.

At the Happy Valley yesterday, the Hongkong Football Club were defeated by one goal to nil by a team composed of men from the R.A. Companies.

An arms dealer was fined $15 to-day for failing to give a true return of his stock. The offence had been committed by the accountant during the master's absence.

The return of communicable diseases, reported in the Colony during the past week, shows a clean bill except for enteric fever, of which there were six cases and three fatalities.

As showing the vast progress of Japanese trade with Hongkong the following figures will be of interest. In 1898 the exports to Hongkong amounted to yen 13,362,302 and in 1899 the value was yen 34,291,347.

To-day, Inspector Ford prosecuted seventeen men whom he found gambling at tenon in a house at 41 Nollah Lane. The first fine was $25 each. The others got off on payment of $3 each.

It is with great pleasure we note in the Illustrated, under date 6th Oct., the names of J. W. Carrington among the Sub-Lieutenants promoted to Lieutenant in the Royal Navy. Our readers will join in our hearty congratulations to the popular Chief Justice Sir John Carrington on the promotion since by his oldest son.

The Interport Match.

The Hongkong Team will fire for the Interport Match to-morrow (Wednesday), 14th inst. Firing will commence at 2.30 p.m., sharp. All members of the team, reserves, and umpires are requested to be on the ground not later than 2.15 p.m.

V.R.C. Football Club.

We are pleased to note that the sometime defunct Victoria Recreation Club Football Team has been reconstituted with, it is anticipated, a prosperous future before it. The following officers have been elected to serve during the ensuing year: President, Mr. E. D. Sanders; Captain, R. Lapsley; Vice-Captain, R. Henderson; Hon. Secretary and Treasurer, G. F. Williams; Committee, G. Duncan, A. Cameron, L. Begg and T. Yale. The first match will be played on Saturday next with the Hongkong Club.

Shipbuilding Returns.

From the returns compiled by Lloyd's Register of Shipping, it appears that, excluding warships, there were 442 vessels of 1,234,048 tons gross under construction in the United Kingdom at the close of the quarter ended 30th September. The present return shows a reduction in the tonnage under construction of about 61,000 tons as compared with the figures for last quarter. As compared with the return for December, 1899, which is the highest on record, there is a reduction of 197,000 tons. The warships under construction at the Royal Dockyards number 16, of 165,849 tons displacement, and comprise—First-class battleships, 3 at Chatham, 3 at Devonport, and 2 at Portsmouth; 3 first-class armoured cruisers at Pembroke and 1 at Portsmouth; one third-class protected cruiser at Portsmouth and 2 ships at Sheerness. There were 38 warships of 198,990 tons displacement under construction at private yards for the British Government, and 16 vessels of 63,655 tons under construction for foreign Governments.

Steamers Wine of God Liver Oil which presents all the nutritive virtues of God Liver Oil itself, in the form of a rich, red wine, in whose sparkling body one can detect no trace of the unpleasant, pungent oil. No emulsion or repulsive. To be obtained of all Chemists, and Wholesale from A. S. Watson & Co., Ltd.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

A Cruel Mistress.
A small-footed Chinese lady appeared on remand to-day, at the Magistrate's, on a charge of cruelly ill-treating her maid, a young girl of eleven years. The child had been starved, beaten and pinched, and her body being a mass of sores, she had been sent to Hospital. The case was, on the application of Inspector Gault, further remanded, to permit of the girl attending to give evidence.

The New Pier.

The new public pier at the foot of Pedder's Street, is to be opened in about ten days. A few little things require to be done in the way of improving the approach to the pier, and these are being completed as rapidly as possible. It is understood that the pier is to be christened the Blake Pier, thus perpetuating the name of our respected Governor, who has consented to perform the opening ceremony.

Typhoon Relief Measures.

It is very gratifying to observe that the charitable spirit of the community has been thoroughly aroused by the very real and dire damage wrought by the typhoon. It will be some considerable time before even an approximation can be obtained of the loss of life or the damage to junks, sampans and other floating habitations, but still there is abundant evidence to show that many thousands may be numbered among the distressed. H.E. the Governor had a conference yesterday with several of the leading Chinese regarding the means to be adopted to ameliorate the distress, and arrangements are being made for the collection and disbursement of the funds. The Chinese have indicated their profound sympathy with the sufferers by getting to work so promptly in the work of relief.

Tales Told in the Zoo.

On October 8th Mr. Fisher Unwin published an edition of 'Tales Told in the Zoo,' by F. Carruthers Gould and F. H. Carruthers Gould in the Colonial Library. These tales are supposed to be told by an old attendant at the Zoological Gardens to the assembled birds located there, and they deal with legendary and folk-lore stories of the origins of various creatures, mostly birds, and their characteristics. North America, Borneo, Australia, Asia, Europe and the British Isles have been drawn upon, and amongst the subjects dealt with are 'How the King-fisher got his plumage,' 'How the Hoopoe got their crest,' 'How the Ant-Bear was made,' and folk-lore connected with the Peewee, the Wren, the Blackbird, the Horn-bill, the Tropicbird, the Nightingale, the Swallow, the Bullfinch of South America, the Cuckoo, the Mistle Thrush, the Australian Bragall and the Laughing Jackass. The book is fully illustrated by 'F.C.G.' whose cartoons have achieved world-wide fame.

Disastrous Fire in Jervois Street.

Early this morning, a fire occurred in Jervois Street resulting in damage to the extent of $19,000. The fire was discovered about 3.45 a.m. in the silk piece goods shop at No. 122 Jervois Street occupied by Chui Chong, and the alarm was quickly conveyed to the Fire Station in Queen's Road, not far from the scene. The Brigade under Mr. Robertson, were on the spot with the greatest promptitude and the fire-boss were soon throwing a large volume of water on the angry flames. The fire must, however, have got a firm hold of the building before it was observed, and in a very short space of time the whole interior was one mass of seething flame. It was found impossible to save No. 122 from total destruction, so efforts were made to save the adjoining buildings. These efforts were crowned with success, and the flames gradually died out. The house consists of a ground floor and three storeys. The ground floor is used as the shop and had a valuable stock of silks, etc., inside, none of which escaped destruction. The floors above were used by the silk and others as sleeping apartments. Fortunately there were no lives lost, but the damage is very considerable. The origin of the fire has not been ascertained. Inspector Warnock visited the premises in the course of the morning and made inquiries which will be reported to the authorities. Two theories of the origin of the conflagration are that a lamp-giving light to the staircase, had exploded, or a bamboo pipe, which was standing against the wall, had become ignited by the lamp close by. The fact of the staircase being destroyed first gives colour to the statement that the fire emanated from this lamp. It may be stated that the property is insured for $21,000, three Companies being concerned. The biggest sufferer is the Man On Company, whose policies on the property amount to $14,800.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The 'Sandpiper' Fatality.
The amateur's mate named Bedford, who was killed on Saturday morning by being crushed between the gallant little Offa and the ill-fated Sandpiper, was interred yesterday afternoon at Happy Valley Cemetery. The usual naval honours were given to the deceased. Poor Bedford just hesitated too long before taking the terrible leap for life else he might have been alive to-day with his comrades. When he did jump he fell between the two vessels and was crushed to death.

A Ship in Difficulties.

This morning about 8.30, the Peking, a Shanghai-bound steamer, passed through the Harbour towards the kerosene anchorage. She had a tremendous list to starboard, while her deck gear seemed to have suffered from stress of weather. She presented such a spectacle that all eyes and glasses were turned towards her. She is now lying in the kerosene anchorage. She has 65,000 cases of oil on board and is consigned to A. Hon, a Chinaman. It is probable that her cargo has shifted.

The Typhoon.

The body of the unfortunate carpenter McElroy, who was washed from the dredge Canton River during the disastrous typhoon on Saturday, was washed ashore at the new pier at the foot of Pedder's Street, last night. The corpse was very much mutilated and presented a sickening spectacle. It was buried to-day. The Japanese employed at the new brewery at Lunghok were also sufferers. Their quarters were blown down and the men were without shelter. They returned some time afterwards and rescued their effects. Mrs. Bay is reported to be full of wrecked junks and many lives must have been lost. There have been seven bodies dug from the ruins of the building which fell at Taiakokui. The bodies recovered up to yesterday, including both sides of the Harbour, number about 60, but many are still reported missing, and many more are lost to the world who will never be reported missing. It is believed that over the Canton the casualties known and unknown will number 350, while the damage amounts to millions of dollars.

CHRISTMAS CARDS.

MESSRS. KAPPALE TUCK AND SONS' PRODUCTIONS.

At this season of the year there is no trade mark so much in favour as that of Messrs. Kappa Tuck and Sons, the world-famous publishers of Christmas and New Year cards. The progress and popularity of this firm is one gratifying contradiction to the somewhat paradoxical assertions regarding the lack of enterprise of the British manufacturer. The firm's business has increased as the Empire extended and the Christmas multiplied, and the amount of happiness occasioned by its publications is beyond measure. The production of art novelties to satiate the desire of the public, as Christmas succeeds Christmas, calls for a rare taste in selection and a high degree of commercial intuition.

The annual gift box from the Raphael House has arrived and we have feasted our eyes over its contents until they lacked the power of discrimination. The collection is unequalled in its infinite variety, beauty of design and quality of execution. The catalogue shows that there are 1,200 entirely new sets of cards, embodying some three thousand individual designs, ranging over upwards of one hundred separate and distinct styles. Space forbids us to even mention the many beautiful novelties which are the 'Gem' of the series, a graceful double folding card of an entirely new shape, will commend itself at once to the public, and especially in boxes and cards which have ruled the Empire during the past twelve months, and depicts the several types of our gallant soldiers and sailors illustrated on khaki-coloured cards. The opening of the catalogue is emphasised with the issue of a collection of calendars, which for superlatives in number and beauty of design any previous production in this line. Among the various processes employed in the production of these treasures are chromolithography, the highest form of printing, the engraving, both in line and mezzotint, and the different methods of photographing and phototyping, have all been requisitioned. In toy-books and juvenile gift-books, there is no rival to the issue of a collection of calendars, which for superlatives in number and beauty of design any previous production in this line. Among the various processes employed in the production of these treasures are chromolithography, the highest form of printing, the engraving, both in line and mezzotint, and the different methods of photographing and phototyping, have all been requisitioned.

Messrs. Kappa Tuck and Sons aspire to think that the means they are taking to achieve that end will have the constant support of the ever-increasing and admiring regards of their patrons.

CANTON NOTES.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
CANTON, October 12.

ITALIAN TROOPS IN ACTION.

The small detachment of Italian troops, which was cut off by the Boers south of Paotung, so that a service of patrols was arranged in order to get into communication with them, has been relieved.

A large detachment of Italian troops under the command of Colonel Gialini, which was marching back from the South to Paotung, met near Kangulung three battalions of Chinese regular infantry. They succeeded in cutting them off. When the Chinese saw that any resistance would be useless they surrounded their arms without firing one shot.

THE OCCUPATION OF YICHOW.

French troops will remain in occupation of the town of Yichow on the highway from Peking to Taiyuan, which was taken by the Allies, as reported in our telegram of the 2nd instant.

CONFERENCE OF MINISTERS.

The German Minister paid yesterday (the 6th) a visit to Prince Ching in answer to the call which the latter made on Herr von Munster on the 1st instant. Inasmuch as under existing circumstances, as your correspondent is reliably informed, no negotiations can be opened at present either with Prince Ching or with Li Hung-chang, no peace can even be the question of the credentials he goes into, there is reason to believe that the German Minister's call upon the Prince was merely one of courtesy and had no political significance.

TREMENDOUS EXPLOSION AT NANKING.

Great Loss of Life.

(Mercury Correspondent.)

Nanking, 30th October.

This city was the scene of a most disastrous explosion this morning. A gunpowder magazine, containing 500,000 cartridges, situated near a temple called Ku Ling Ang, was exploded by a stroke of lightning which set a severe thunderstorm, which was raging at the time.

The report was almost simultaneous with a loud peal of thunder, and was a most terrific noise. It must have been heard for 20 miles. Scarcely a whole pane of glass is left in any foreign house within a radius of over 4 miles. Thirty persons are known to have been killed outright, and as many injured. Four were killed by a falling chimney which fell into a well. The crash of broken glass was well heard. In some cases windows were blown out of their frames wholesale, and both frames and glass smashed. Doors and French windows were wrenched from the hinges and hurled into the room. From bolts and fastenings were torn out. This in some cases saved the glass. Clouds of dust were precipitated with the rain which fell in torrents at the time. Pieces of charred wood from the boxes in which the powder was packed, together with pieces of blackened and twisted sheet iron and hoop iron, were hurled into the air and fell some of them 2 miles away from the scene of the explosion. But, if the wreckage of glass, doors, windows and plaster hanging in the foreign houses, reeked on the spot and in the immediate vicinity of the explosion was truly appalling. This afternoon I visited the scene of the disaster. It is situated in a small valley which is surrounded by some of the most charming scenery to be found anywhere in this most rural of cities. Clumps of fir and chestnut, oak and bamboo abound on all sides, the principal hill crowned at top with a famous temple called Ku Ling Ang, all the trees tinged with the first signs of autumn made a perfect picture. On such a scene, a most wholesale destruction had been wrought. The valley, no longer small, but ploughed and torn up for over a thousand yards, giving the appearance of the crater of a miniature extinct volcano. Not a vestige of the buildings and wall enclosing it remained.

Trees and bamboo had been stripped of every leaf as if by some powerful mining machine. The trunks and limbs of trees all bare, scorched, and splintered, lay propped on the ground in regular order. Bamboo was split up as if by some giant bamboo worker who had prepared for a big basket making.

The temple itself is a mass of ruins. Here and there a piece of burning, falling, or a wood pillar leaning at a dangerous angle, warn all and sundry to keep clear.

NEWS FROM THE NORTH.

(N. C. Daily News.)

Furnishing the Hulan Palace.

A Hankow dispatch states that Tsai Taotai, Customs Throat of Hankow and a cousin of Governor Tsen Ching-hsueh of Shensi, is at present exceedingly busy furnishing all sorts of foreign furniture and articles of foreign art for a certain palace at Peking, for transport to Peking in order to furnish the new Palace there. It is reported that in sending the above orders to Peking, Governor Tsen sent a draft amounting to nearly £120,000 for the purpose.

Chihli Treasurer Sentenced.

There was a rumour here amongst the local mandarin that Ting Yung (Mandarin), Provincial Treasurer of Chihli, who was arrested by the Allied forces, in whose arrest he was taken to Peking, had been sentenced to death. The principal charge against Ting Yung was that he had been guilty of embezzling the funds of the province. It will be remembered that the Boxer rebellion broke out in Chihli, and that Ting Yung was first Provincial Treasurer of Chihli, and then Ting Chieh, the then Treasurer, was called to Peking to assist Prince Tuan in his efforts to suppress the Boxers of the province, and eventually Ting Yung became Treasurer of the Boxer Government. He was arrested by the Allied forces, and was taken to Peking. He was sentenced to death, and was executed on the 10th of November.

Presenting for the Empress Dowager.

H. E. Nieh, Acting Governor of Kiangsu (Shanghai), and Provincial Treasurer, has just presented to the Empress Dowager a valuable gift. The gift consists of a set of Chinese silk robes, and a set of Chinese silk shoes. The robes are of a fine quality, and the shoes are of a fine quality. The gift was presented to the Empress Dowager on the 10th of November.

Li Hung Chang and the Russians.

It is generally believed in mandarin circles that the consequences of Li Hung Chang's recent arrangements, while in Shanghai, with Russia, with reference to the withdrawal of the troops of the Allies from Peking, will be of great importance. The Allies from Peking, it is believed, will be of great importance. The Allies from Peking, it is believed, will be of great importance.

A Sensible Demand.

A sensible demand from Peking states that the Foreign Ministers have demanded that the Chinese Government should pay for the cost of the Allied forces in Peking. The Chinese Government has refused to pay for the cost of the Allied forces in Peking.

Disbanded Soldiers.

It is reported from Tsinghsien that a large number of disbanded soldiers and deserters from the Northern forces have arrived at that city, and that there is a great deal of trouble being caused by them.

Currying for Future Favours.

According to an official dispatch from Hsien, Governor Tsen Ching-hsueh of Shensi (hitherto reported to be a Russian agent) has been reported to be currying for future favours from the Russian Government.

Yuan Shih-kai and the Allies.

Chinaphu, capital of Shantung, dispatches report that Governor Yuan Shih-kai of Shantung has received an assurance from the Allied forces that they will not make any difficulties for him.

The Chuchou Murders.

Viceroy Liu of Nanking is reported to have received a dispatch from the British authorities regarding the Chuchou murders. The British authorities are reported to be investigating the case.

As Seen in Europe.

London via Adelaide, October 10.—Russia, France and America have now agreed to a plan of intervention at Peking. The plan is to send a large force to Peking to suppress the Boxers.

Revision of the Treaty of Commerce.

The Japan Times reports: A special London dispatch of the 10th October which the Chinese Government has received, reports that the Japanese Government is proposing to revise the Treaty of Commerce between Japan and China. The Japanese Government is proposing to revise the Treaty of Commerce between Japan and China.

Still in Favour.

Another Hsien telegraphic dispatch states that, in spite of Prince Chuang, Vice-Commodore of the Boxer army, being cashiered and deprived of Imperial edicts, his princely title and emblems, a dispatch was recently sent by the Empress Dowager to him at Tsinghsien Pass City ordering him to follow her to Hsien to assist her.

The So-called 'High Commissioner'.

A Hsien telegram states that Tsai Chien-hsueh, Governor-designate of Shensi, has been appointed Imperial High Commissioner for the purpose of collecting additional contributions for the use of the Refugees, and that Tsai Chien-hsueh, who was the other day designated as High Commissioner for the same purpose, is now Governor Tsen's head deputy.

Li Hung-chang's Bodyguards.

A Nanchang (provincial capital of Kiangsi) dispatch, dated the 10th ultimo, to hand, reports that the above-named Li Hung-chang, who was the other day designated as High Commissioner for the same purpose, is now Governor Tsen's head deputy.

Peking News.

The following Peking dispatch was received at Shanghai on November 8: Li Hung-chang and Prince Ching had a conference with some of the Foreign Ministers on the 20th ultimo. All the high officials of the Chinese Government were present. The conference was held in the presence of the Empress Dowager.
